

We get our music from a variety of sources. We are on the mailing list or have access to the download sites of all of the top radio promoters in Southern Gospel Music. We also receive full projects from many record labels and individual artists. We also built a good portion of our playlist through our private collection of CD's which exceeds well over 500!