

We cannot ever promise airplay for any music we receive. We do have some criteria for the music we play. First, the music must be Southern Gospel or very close to it. Second, the music must be high quality in sound. The final item is that the music must be high quality in production. All airplay decisions are made our listening committee.