

At Tunes4Him.com we play all types of artists. We have several categories of music in our music library and all categories receive airplay. Airplay is based on a number factors including how popular and well-know the artists are. That being said, we also give a good amount of airplay to regional artists and independent artists. Our only requirement is that the music is good quality.